Jeannette Rankin Foundation
EIN: 58-1273122
2005 IRS Form 990, Part III

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

The Jeannette Rankin Foundation raises funds and provides grants annually to low-income women, thirty-five years of age and older, who are in an undergraduate or vocational training program and have a vision of how their education will benefit themselves, their families, and their communities.

Since JRF was chartered in 1976, the foundation has been working to provide educational grants to women across the United States to assist them toward their educational goals. Each year, JRF receives 900-1200 applications from women seeking financial aid for college. The number of grants that the foundation can provide has increased slowly from the one grant of $500 in 1978 to 21 grants of $1500 each in 1997. For the next four years, the number of grants remained the same at 25 grants of $1500 each. In 2002, the organization hired two professional staff, and the program accelerated. Thirty women received grants of $2000 each in 2002, and by 2005, JRF was providing 65 grants of $2000 to help women succeed through education.

In 2005, JRF added a third person to the professional staff. The foundation's daily work is managed by an Executive Director, Program Coordinator, and Program Assistant. In addition, JRF has developed a strong network of volunteers and student interns to help with the application review process and daily operations. In 2005, 355 volunteers contributed their time to help with JRF work in Athens, Georgia.

The value of a college education can be quantified by looking at increased earning power. According to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics and Census Bureau, 2004, the median salary for women is: $25,376 for a high school graduate; $31,616 for a woman with an associate's degree; and $41,984 for a woman with a bachelor's degree.

JRF supports success: more than 80% of JRF recipients have graduated or are still in school. Of the 65 women who received grants in 2005, nearly half (48%) are the first in their family to go to college. The women who are JRF recipients get their education and move up to careers that provide living wages. Thus, the JRF program is effective in combating poverty permanently. The Jeannette Rankin Foundation is one of the few organizations in the United States with educational grants for women age 35 and older.
