Jeanette Rankin Scholarship Fund

Annual Report
2020
Thank you for continuing with us on our journey to empower women through education.

As we kicked off 2020, little did we know what was in store for us. You have partnered with us to finish the year strong regardless of the challenging circumstances for us all. You stepped up and provided speedy and generous donations for our Emergency Fund. We were able to provide each Scholar with two Scholarship Stipends, helping them buy groceries, pay electric bills, and purchase school and home office supplies. Sometimes all we need is a little boost and knowing that someone cares. Your generosity in providing these Emergency Funds let JRF Scholars know that you support them.

We started monthly Scholar Calls and shared multiple resources with our Scholars to help them persevere. We see their grace under pressure, amazing resilience, and incredible persistence. JRF Scholars are dealing with the breakneck speed of switching to completely online learning for both themselves and their children. And they continue to navigate school and home with success. Our Persistence Rate this year was 87%, meaning that 87% of our Scholars continued their education or graduated.

In spite of the pandemic, we had our largest graduating class ever – 27 women! This had much to do with the generous support from The Coca-Cola Foundation over the past four years. We were able to provide more scholarships to more women and help them achieve self-sufficiency for themselves and their families. Make sure you check them out on the Scholar pages that follow in this report.

Our Strategic Plan continues to move us forward. The Three Pillars of that plan include the following:

CREATE A SUSTAINABLE ORGANIZATION
We were the fortunate recipients of five Endowed Scholarships this year. We are grateful to Betsy Bach, Elissa Perry, Jinx & Gordhan Patel, Rob & Kate Larsen, Tracy Cosgrove, and the Sterk Family for investing in our long-term sustainability. An endowed scholarship is the gift that keeps on giving, changing the trajectory of a Scholar’s life as well as that of her family.

GROW THE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM
We raised the amount of the scholarships by $500 - up to $2,500. We investigated the ways to build capacity to provide more scholarships to more women.

DEVELOP A NATIONAL PRESENCE AND IDENTITY
Board Member Jane Hale Hopkins along with CEO Karen Sterk presented at the Women’s Funding Network Conference in San Francisco. LaTrena Artist presented at the National Scholarship Providers Conference in Minneapolis.

We continue our journey with you as our partners!

Many many thanks,
Karen and Libby

3 biggest factors for student mother success are:

1: Access to quality childcare.
2: Supportive services - i.e. case management/coaching.
3: As little as $2,000 "extra" a year to help with non tuition expenses

2 million single mother students in the US today

nearly 9 out of 10 single mothers pursuing a college degree have incomes at or near the federal poverty line

75% of JRF Scholars are single mothers

$400,000,000 = estimated economic impact in terms of income for all 640 JRF Scholars that have graduated in the last 44 years.

Our investment over the past 44 years has been $3,250,000

Currently enrolled single mothers expected to earn a BA pay roughly $6.6 billion more in taxes over their lifetimes than those with just HS.

$19.9 billion The amount of public assistance that the currently enrolled single mother students who earn degrees or some college credit is expected to save society.

ALANE, WILLIAMSPORT, PA
Human Services & Restorative Justice, A.A.
- Continuing Pennsylvania College of Technology
Seeing my progress from when I started this journey to now has been a wonderful process for me personally. I have a better idea of what I can do when I put my mind to it, and no longer try to make excuses for why things are.

ALEAH,

Lynnae W., Minneapolis, MN

ANDREA, PROVIDENCE, RI
English, B.A. - Rhode Island College
The JRF Scholarship has been a blessing. It made the pursuit of my goals so much easier. I returned to college later in life and, although it has been rewarding, it was costly, so I appreciate everything the JRF has done for me. I’m honored to be counted among the extended family.

DORA, CLEVELAND, OH
Women’s Studies, B.A. - Case Western Reserve University
My journey has inspired my brother and youngest sister, as well as members of my church family to enroll in school. As an older student, I have become a beacon of hope and an example for other adult learners that feel it is too late to return to school.

DUNG, PHOENIX, AZ
Accounting, B.A. - Grand Canyon University
Thank you for your generous donations and support. I have promised myself that I will try my best to bring out the best result of every dollar you have invested in my education. I will also follow your giving-and-sharing examples to contribute to the positive changes in our society.

ELIZABETH, LONGMEADOW, MA

ERIN, KALAMAZOO, MI
Integrated Supply Management, B.A. - Western Michigan University
Taking on a problem and coming up with a conscientious solution is something I have become quite good at. I have my past to thank for my very motivated educational drive and maturity to understand that you cannot keep on only one path your whole life.

IFY, ABILENE, TX
Human Services - Administration, B.A. University
Earning my Bachelor’s degree with the JRF support enables me to get a better job to support my family, contribute to my community both by mentoring and financially. I can also open a daycare and preschool center to provide a safe, secure place for needy children whose parents work or attend school.

JASMINE, BROOKLYN, NY

JENNIFER L., COLLEGE PARK, MARYLAND
Social Science, B.A. - University of Maryland
Thanks to the Rankin Fund, I can continue to “walk the talk” that I have always preached to my children: that they must go to college. And that may be the thing that has the biggest and most long-lasting impact of being a recipient of this scholarship — my children witnessing me accomplishing this difficult goal that means so much to me, and through that, knowing that they can do it themselves.
LYNNAE, MINNEAPOLIS, MN
Health Science, A.S. - Continuing North Hennepin Community College

MAYUKO, SPOKANE WA
Dental Hygiene, B.S. - Eastern Washington University
My education benefits myself to have a stable income to support my children after my graduation. As a single mother, it is critical for me to have a strong hands-on career that will allow me to work and provide enough for my sons. My education allows me to have the knowledge and skills to provide support to people and help the entire community.

As a single parent and full time nursing student, the cost of attending college was even higher. From the bottom of my heart, I sincerely thank the decision-makers as well as the donors. Because of their generosity and kindness, women just like me, are being encouraged to remain in school.

Since I could not earn a professional level salary, I could not contribute to my family’s income as much as I’d like. Now that I have completed my education, I will be able to combine my income with my husband’s and give our children a better life and show them that their mother is capable of providing for them in my new country.

I didn’t have any extended family in America to support me and my kids. I realized I had to be strong to show my kids that it doesn’t matter how hard life is and to never give up on your dream and to always believe in yourself.

Alexandra Kilpatrick, better known as Alix, lived a life in which she focused on pursuing her dreams, from working at a theater in Paris, France, to opening a yoga studio in New Zealand, to flying for American Airlines. She was passionate about having a full life, and as she got older, she realized that she wanted to leave a legacy that helped to empower others to live a full life. She asked her cousin and childhood best friend, Donna Zenor, to research organizations that “enhance the lives of women through education,” leading to the discovery of Jeannette Rankin Women’s Scholarship Fund. Unfortunately, Alix died suddenly and was unable to leave the funds directly to JRF, but that didn’t stop Donna from doing everything she could to make sure Alix’s wish was honored.

“Alix is one of the most generous spirits to have ever inhabited this earth and the scholarship fund which the donor is establishing upon her death should be counted as one of the many gifts which are her legacy,” says Donna. The Alexandra Kilpatrick Endowed Scholarship Fund, which we received in 2016, has been transformative, allowing us to empower more women. We are so grateful that Alix cared so deeply about the women we serve and that Donna found us. This gift will transform the lives of JRF Scholars and their families for years to come.
Elayne was an intellectually curious, lifelong learner and single mother of three daughters. Her daughters are Elissa, Shira, and Arielle. Elayne was the daughter of Al Levin and Jesse Levin. Her mother was a teacher who received a college degree at a time when relatively fewer women did so. Elayne was raised, and in turn raised her own children, to greatly value education and the opportunities and economic freedom that it brought. Elayne put her own three daughters through college and encouraged them to pursue post graduate education. Additionally, when she passed away in 2003, money from the sale of her home was put into college funds for each of her grandchildren.

Her daughter, Elissa, endowed the Elayne L. Perry Fund in memory of her strong and independent mother. Dr. Elissa Perry has volunteered her time and energy to the Jeannette Rankin Foundation as a JRF Application Reader as well as funding additional scholarships to help JRF provide more aid to women in need. She believes that her mother would be gratified to know that her strong belief in the importance of education would leave a lasting legacy for members of her own family as well as women most in need of such assistance.
This fund honors the memory of Margaret James Black, who came to Glacier National Park in Montana in the 1920s to work as an executive assistant at Glacier Park Lodge. She met and married Hugh Black, a seasonal park ranger from Michigan, and in 1932 the two founded what became St. Mary Lodge and Resort. While growing the business to include an expanded grand lodge, motels, cottages and cabins, restaurants, gift shops, outfitters, and a supermarket and gas station, Margaret found time to raise six children. She was a generous supporter of her children and their endeavors, as well as her many, many grandchildren. Margaret passed in 2008, at age 105. Her legacy lives on with Margaret Black Cottages/The Cottages at Glacier Park, which today is managed by her youngest daughter and three grandchildren.
Mae had a deep love for education, and particularly for science. She aspired to be a doctor in a time where there were few female doctors. Her father refused to send her to college because “girls don’t need an education.” So with funds she earned herself, she went to college. She graduated from Calvin College in 1947 with a Bachelor of Science in Nursing, one of the few BSNs awarded in the 1940s. After completing RN training at Rush Presbyterian Hospital in Chicago, Mae married Watson Sterk and brought six children into the world before returning to school to obtain certification as a Public Health Nurse to work as a Health Nurse for Dodge County, Wisconsin.

Mae and her husband sent all six of their children through college, understanding that a college education would open up the world to them. Everyone appreciated her passion for education. Her daughter and Jeannette Rankin Women’s Scholarship Fund’s CEO, Karen Sterk, along with her brothers and sisters, endowed this scholarship for women anywhere in the United States pursuing a Nursing degree. Their goal is to give a woman the help she needs to achieve her dreams.
Bhuliben Patel was born in Dhaman, a rural village in the state of Gujarat, India. Her marriage to Lalubhai Patel was arranged, and she moved to his village, Kuched. Early in their marriage, Lalubhai and his brother traveled to Mozambique – a Portuguese colony in East Africa – where they purchased a banana plantation near the capital city, Lourenco Marques (named Maputo in 1975). Bhuliben soon followed with their first son, Gopal. Their other two children, Gordhan and Laxmi were born in Mozambique in 1936 and 1944, respectively. During those years, Bhuliben and Lalubhai created a family compound of nephews and their families – totaling about twenty-five family members coming from India.

Bhuliben directed the activities and organization of this household. In December 1961, when India by military action repossessed Goa, a tiny Portuguese colony in the Indian sub-continent, the Portuguese authorities in Mozambique rounded up all residents with Indian citizenship, confiscated all of their properties and put them in a detention camp for six months. This included Bhuliben, Lalubhai and their family members who were Indian citizens. This excluded their son, Gordhan, who was a college student in the United States, their daughter, Laxmi, and their son Gopal’s wife and their four grandchildren who were Portuguese citizens by virtue of their birth in Mozambique. After six months of detention, all Indian citizens were required to leave Mozambique. However, Bhuliben and Lalubhai were exempted from this deportation order and allowed to remain with Laxmi and Gopal’s wife and their grandchildren. Gopal and the others returned to their ancestral homes in India. Lalubhai died in 1971 and Gopal was allowed to return to Mozambique after being separated from his wife and children for nine years. In 1975, after the communist take-over of Mozambique, Bhuliben and Gopal with his family immigrated to Athens, Georgia and in 1977 moved to Colorado Springs, Colorado. Bhuliben spent her remaining years surrounded by children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She possessed a marvelous sense of humor and was always active. When she died at the age of a hundred and one plus in 2007, she had lived on three different continents, adapted wonderfully to each, and was so loved and adored by her family.
Virginia (Jinx) and Gordhan Patel are establishing this scholarship fund in order to honor these three women who were amazing, loving, and remarkably strong individuals who stressed the importance of family. This fund honors the memory of Bhuliben Patel – the mother of Gordhan Lalubhai Patel, the memory of Ferne Virginia Halloran Broaddus – the mother of Virginia (Jinx) Broaddus Patel, and the memory of Ferne Randolph Broaddus Cofer – the sister of Virginia (Jinx) Broaddus Patel.

Ferne Virginia Halloran Broaddus was born in Hinton, West Virginia in 1901. Hinton was a thriving town in the early 1900s because the trains stopped there for refueling. Ferne was one of seven children who were all musical, playing two to three instruments, and always hosting neighborhood parties on their front porch. As a young woman, Ferne would often play the piano in the theater to accompany the showing of a silent movie. She met her husband, Randolph Gwinn Broaddus, MD, when he, as a young surgeon, accepted a position at the Hinton Hospital. They were married in 1926 and had their first daughter, Ferne Randolph, in 1927. Their second daughter, Virginia Gwinn (Jinx) was born in 1937. In 1928, Randolph became superintendent of the Raleigh General Hospital in Beckley, West Virginia. The family moved up the mountain twenty-five miles to Beckley in 1942. Her husband Randolph also established for a few years a nursing school in Beckley because he needed trained nurses to staff the Raleigh General. Ferne was an exceedingly active member of St. Stephens Episcopal Church as well as the Raleigh County Medical Auxiliary, Girl Scouting, the Beckley Woman's Club, the Monday Music Club, the Azalea Garden Club, and two historical societies. As a gracious hostess, Ferne was always having events for these many organizations, and especially hosting the reunion parties of the Raleigh General Hospital Nurses Alumnae Association in their home. She was a devoted and loving wife, mother, and grandmother and stressed the importance of family.

Ferne Randolph Broaddus Cofer was born in Hinton, West Virginia. She attended private schools, St. Margaret’s School in Tappahannock, Virginia and the Ward Belmont School in Nashville, Tennessee, for her secondary education. She received a Bachelor’s degree from the College of William and Mary and a degree in Medical Technology from the University of Virginia. In 1950, she married Joseph P. Cofer, a graduate of the Naval Academy and at that time, a Lieutenant in the Navy. The first ten years of their marriage, they had three children and moved eleven times living in Monterey, CA; Norfolk, VA; Charleston, SC; Boston, MS; London, England. When her husband retired from the Navy as Captain, they settled in Chattanooga, TN, where their fourth child was born. Ferne worked as a medical technologist and a real estate broker. She was a founding member of St. Thaddaeus Episcopal Church and was the first woman to be appointed to the vestry. Ferne was a superior cook and a gracious hostess. She and Joe had many sets of friends so Ferne was always hosting gatherings. It was always important for her large family to come to her home for holiday celebrations. She was a loving and wonderful daughter, wife, mother, sister, and grandmother and was adored by all who knew her.
Reita Rivers was born on September 13, 1930 in Jenkins, Kentucky. She was the only child of Lola Dotson Rivers and Earl Rivers. Most of her childhood was spent in Wise, Virginia. She attended Virginia Intermont College in Bristol, Virginia and received her BS degree from Radford State Teachers College.

Reita taught Spanish before switching to a career as a representative for Silver Burdette textbook company in Atlanta. There she met a colleague, Pat Haynes, his wife Corky and family. A close friendship quickly formed and lasted a lifetime. Pat left Silver Burdette and moved his family to Athens in 1964. Reita moved to Athens the next year. She quickly was hired as a graduate assistant and started taking graduate courses herself. While pursuing job offerings at the student employment center, she saw an ad: “Personal Assistant for Miss Jeannette Rankin,” it was a name familiar to Reita; her grandfather had talked about “that woman from Montana has more guts than most men!” Reita knew Jeannette’s historic journey as America’s first elected Congresswoman. She was hired and very soon became a close friend of Jeannette.

Miss Rankin passed away May 18, 1973, days short of her 93rd birthday. Reita executed her estate. Miss Rankin stipulated money left in her estate was to provide educational opportunities for older women. Reita along with four of her closest friends who were also committed to equal rights sought to expand opportunities for women. They were JRF co-founders, Sue Bailey, Heather Kleiner, Margaret Holt, and Gail Dendy. Together they developed the idea of creating The Jeannette Rankin Foundation. The JRF was founded in 1976.

Later, Reita worked as Communications Director for the Sea Grant Program and Marine Sciences Department at the University of Georgia for over 20 years. She created a successful project of merging science with art. Reita held exhibitions of the art throughout the state and sparked the public’s interest in and appreciation of coastal resources.

Reita will be remembered as an advocate for social justice, a dedicated feminist, and animal lover. The Jeannette Rankin Foundations endows this scholarship in memory of her.
THE SALLY BRUCE & MARVIN MCCLATCHEY SCHOLARSHIP
ENDORSED BY ROB & KATE LARSEN

This gift is given in loving memory of Sally Bruce and Marvin McClatchey – beloved parents, grandparents, leaders, role models, and scholars. Both instilled a lifetime love of education, learning, and discovery in their large family and even larger circle of friends. Their memory lives on through faith, the adoration of family, and the continued learning and growth of the many people that their lives have touched.

The help received from this scholarship made it possible for me to emerge through to the finish line. I graduated with a semester 4.0 GPA and was pleased to learn I’d made the President’s List.

It means that I would have a small amount of stress removed from my list of tasks and never ending items that involve my two small children.

The scholarship was an answer to prayer. I found out a few days before the final tuition payment of the summer semester money was due that I didn’t qualify for any financial assistance. Also, that same week I had a cracked tooth and needed a root canal and crown which I was told my out-of-pocket expenses would be over $1000.

This scholarship means the chance to redeem myself from all of the perceived wrong turns and wrong decisions that I have made in the past and go forward on a newer, brighter path.
