Thank you for partnering with us on our journey to transform futures through education.

While this past year has been one filled with many challenges, we want to shine a light on your support for JRF Scholars in their pursuit of post-secondary education and economic empowerment. In spite of the challenges, JRF Scholars persevered. We had our highest persistence rate (continue or graduate) ever at 92%. We are impressed with our 28 graduates and are in their front row cheering for their success. Your support has made all the difference. You stepped up again to help with the JRF Emergency Fund that provided 31 women extra support they needed this year. See page 16 for more information.

This year we commemorated our 45th anniversary by celebrating our Founders. These women were truly a dream team. Susan Bailey was the lawyer, Gail Dendy the historian, Heather Kleiner the spirit that brought them all together, Margaret Holt the adult education expert, and Reita Rivers the connection to Jeannette Rankin. We are grateful for their collaborative, collegial work that is imprinted on the DNA of the Jeannette Rankin Foundation.

We dreamed our way forward in May with our newly created Strategic Plan. Our Purpose is to transform futures through education, the Scholar, the children, and the community. Our Culture of Philanthropy provides both a Scholar-centered focus and a supporter-centered focus. We do our work with you. Our goal is to have everyone understand that philanthropy and fund development are critical to our organization’s health. Each and every one of us – Scholars, supporters, staff, leadership volunteers, and program volunteers, are critical to JRF. Guided by the spirit of Jeannette Rankin, a social and racial justice advocate, we embrace Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in all that we do and how we do it. Through our new Strategic Plan, we outlined our priorities, as described on the next page.

Organizational Excellence
Our goal is to recruit, engage, cultivate, and retain the very best stakeholders, including Scholars, staff, leadership volunteers, program volunteers, and supporters. We leverage technology with a goal to always be high tech and high touch. We work to ensure the long-term financial vitality of JRF.

Programmatic Impact
We evaluate what we do and how we do it for the greatest mission impact. We recognize that the effect education has on a JRF Scholar ripples and spreads beyond the Scholar to her family and community, and we work to maximize that impact.

Brand Elevation
We celebrate Jeannette Rankin and her legacy. We work to expand our reach and deepen our impact throughout the U.S. National Scholarship Providers Association (NSPA) awarded us Scholarship Provider of the Year for the second time.

We are grateful for your partnership as we continue this journey to inspire a better world by empowering women through education.

With gratitude,

Libby Michele Karen Pollock, Ozumba, Sterk, Board Chair President CEO

Alexandra Kilpatrick, better known as Alix, lived a life in which she focused on pursuing her dreams, from working at a theater in Paris, France, to opening a yoga studio in New Zealand, to flying for American Airlines. She was passionate about having a full life, and as she got older, she realized that she wanted to leave a legacy that helped to empower others to live a full life. She asked her cousin and childhood best friend, Donna Zenor, to research organizations that “enhance the lives of women through education,” leading to the discovery of Jeannette Rankin Women’s Foundation. Unfortunately, Alix died suddenly and was unable to leave the funds directly to JRF, but that didn’t stop Donna from doing everything she could to make sure Alix’s wish was honored.

“Alix is one of the most generous spirits to have ever inhabited this earth and the scholarship fund which the donor is establishing upon her death should be counted as one of the many gifts which are her legacy,” says Donna. The Alexandra Kilpatrick Endowed Scholarship Fund, which was established in 2016, has been transformative, allowing us to empower more women. We are so grateful that Alix cared so deeply about the women we serve and that Donna found us. This gift will transform the lives of JRF Scholars and their families for years to come.
Arvonia Elizabeth Vaughn Sprague (1888-1983) was born in Vaughn, Montana, and lived in Montana her entire life. She graduated from Mills College in California, and returned to live in Great Falls with her husband, Hugh Max Sprague. She was the mother of four children and spent time volunteering for various civic organizations. She was an active member of the PEO Sisterhood, and with her father, Robert Vaughn, was a long-time friend and supporter of cowboy artist Charlie Russel and his wife, Nancy.
Today, when I reflect on 2020, one of the words that comes to mind is resilience. Our people and our business were resilient in the face of extraordinary challenges. Our people quickly adapted to new conditions to support our communities and our business.

Finally, 2020 marked an exciting milestone in our social impact work. We surpassed our goal of enabling the economic empowerment of 5 million women through our 5by20® program, creating shared value for these women, their families and communities.

— James Quincy, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Coca-Cola

Jeannette Rankin Foundation is most grateful to be a part of the 5by20® program. Coca-Cola has provided close to $400,000 over the past four years to support JRF Scholars. Thank You Coca-Cola!
We share Synchrony’s belief that a four-year education should be accessible to women at any point in their lives who want to build a better future for themselves and their families. Education as the Equalizer will help us, through the Jeanette Rankin Foundation, economically empower non-traditional women students through post-secondary education. By providing equal access to everyone, we lift each other higher.

— Michele Ozumba, President, Jeannette Rankin Foundation

Synchrony supported 20 JRF Scholars for two years through the Education as an Equalizer Initiative via the Synchrony Women’s Network. Additionally, Synchrony provided support for both the JRF Emergency Fund and overhead for two years. Education as an Equalizer builds on Synchrony’s commitment to address deeply-rooted economic inequality within our communities through investment, engagement, and social reform, in collaboration with academic institutions, non-profits, government, and businesses.

synchrony.com/synchrony-launches-initiative-to-advance-education-equity.html

I know from my own experiences that arming someone with education gives them optionality in the future to take control of their lives. There is nothing I believe more. And despite what we as women are often told, it isn’t and never has been selfish to take care of yourself and to invest in your future.

In June 2020, we established a fund to support women with the tools to empower themselves. We believe that as a community, women empower everyone around them, promoting collaboration, fairness and equality. Our mission for the fund is to give these tools and that choice to the next generation so that they might take on leadership (and the world) on their own terms.

— Noura Sakkijha, CEO and Co-Founder

Mejuri invested in the support of 17 JRF Scholars via their Empowerment Fund.

This year we combined the Athens and Atlanta STAR Parties into one virtual event. We welcomed JRF Friends and Supporters from across the country.

Thank you to everyone who participated!
In August of 2020, we celebrated the 100 year Anniversary of the 19th Amendment by sharing JEANNETTE The Musical with you (now known as We Won’t Sleep.) The dynamic group of creatives from this musical are working to bring Jeannette Rankin’s story to light. We are grateful they tell Jeannette Rankin’s story and her part in the historic passage of the 19th Amendment, ensuring the right to vote was no longer withheld based on a person’s gender.

The Jeannette Rankin Foundation walks the road that Jeannette Rankin began paving over a century ago. Our goal is to continually build on her work in more inclusive and expansive ways.

Composer and lyricist Ari Afsar and playwright Lauren Gunderson, leaders of the creative team for We Won’t Sleep, a musical about Jeannette Rankin and her impact as a social justice advocate.
Last year we established an Emergency Fund as the pandemic commenced. We were able to give each Scholar two stipends in March and April because so many generous supporters stepped up and funded $30,000.

It has been a goal for several years to establish an ongoing Emergency Fund, because as we all know, life happens. This year we were able to institutionalize the Emergency Fund, again because of your generous support.

You have supported thirty women who needed additional support for:

- Tuition, books and school expenses, particularly for Juniors and Seniors who often run out of institutional aid towards the end of their program.
- Car challenges including repairs, maintenance and gas.
- Fixing an electric water heater.
- Survivor of domestic violence changing her living situation.
